

From Sunday's Gospel

There were a group of people called Sadducees who did not believe in the resurrection (that people would live with God forever in heaven). One day some of them came to Jesus and asked him what he thought marriage would be like in heaven. Jesus knew they didn't really want an answer to their question, they were just trying to trap him. So Jesus showed they didn't understand the resurrection by saying, 'In heaven people do not get married, they are God's children and will live forever.'

*For the weekday readings beginning Monday November 7th please go to 32nd Week of Ordinary Time (Year 2)

Pope Francis writes: "We believe that there is another life because we have already begun to feel it here."

Throughout the Gospels Jesus reminds us that heaven is real. When we hear the word 'heaven', what comes to mind? What images do we have? What do we think heaven will be like? This last week we celebrated the great feast of All Saints when we thanked God for all those people, some of whom we will have known, who are now living with God in heaven. May they pray for us.

Sunday School

The next Sunday School will take place THIS Sunday, November 6th, after the 10.00am Mass. Children and parents will meet in their different age groups before returning to Church for a final prayer just before midday.

Refugee Crisis:

The Bishop has asked that there be a retiring collection across the weekend of 5th/6th November to support the Diocesan response to the continuing refugee crisis and severe hardship being suffered by those fleeing war and poverty. We are asked to give as generously as we can.

(The proceeds from the 2nd Collection this weekend will be our contribution)
If you would like to become more involved with the Diocesan response to the continuing refugee crisis and severe hardship being suffered by those fleeing war - an information evening will be held at Hinsley Hall, 62 Headingley Lane, Leeds, LS6 2BX on Wednesday, 30th November 2016 7.30-8.30 pm.
Please pick up a copy of Issue 1 November 2016 Refugee Response News which you will find at the back of the church

ORDER YOUR CHOCOLATE ADVENT CALENDARS TODAY!

TRAIDCRAFT
Fighting poverty through trade

If you would like to order Advent Calendars TODAY is your last chance. This calendar not only has a fairly traded piece of chocolate behind each window, it also tells the real Christian story of Christmas by means of a special booklet. Each calendar costs £3.95 and you are asked to write your orders on the lists at the back of the church TODAY! Your calendar is then guaranteed to arrive before the beginning of December.

Please also see the Traidcraft catalogues are at the back of Church. Please borrow one and let Chris Johnson (873568) have your order as soon as possible.

Many thanks Chris and Heidi

Thought for the Week

It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead.

Please remember to return your envelopes with the names of people you wish to have entered in the Book of Remembrance.

Suggested Gifts: Tea bags, Coffee, Sugar, Pasta, Rice, Soups, Corned Beef, Tuna, Tinned Ham, Baked Beans, Tinned Vegetables, Tinned Tomatoes.
Please DO NOT bring FRESH food or OUT of DATE items. All other gifts most gratefully received. Celia and Philip Hall.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Through Operation Christmas Child we are invited to show God's love in a tangible way to needy children throughout the world, and partner with local churches worldwide to share the good news of Jesus Christ.

Each child receives a shoe box, filled with such things as toys, school supplies, hygiene items etc. For more details and for the shoe boxes please contact Brenda Cockayne (874686)

Next "Holy Jam" Sunday 18th December 2016

"Holy Jam" will be leading the music at 10am Mass on Sunday 18th December, the 4th Sunday of Advent. If you've been inspired at this Sunday's 10am Mass, and you would like to join us and play in December at whatever musical level you are then come and talk to Michele or Michelle (guitarists). Or fill out the Contact form at www.sacredheartparish.org.uk Let us know what instrument you/your child play/s, and at what level, so we can get the right music ready. Percussion will be available and all will be welcome to join in playing the last hymn on Advent 4.
