Happy New Year

To you and your families.

What the Pope says at the end of 2025 and going into 2026.

Pope Leo XIV used the Vatican's final general audience of 2025 on Wednesday to invite Catholics to look back on the past year with gratitude and repentance, and to place what lies ahead in God's hands.

In St. Peter's Square on Dec. 31, the pope said 2025 brought both joy and sorrow, citing the jubilee pilgrimage of the faithful as well as "the passing of the late Pope Francis" and "the scenarios of war that continue to convulse the planet."

"At its end," Leo said, "the Church invites us to place everything before the Lord, entrusting ourselves to his providence, and asking him to renew, in us and around us, in the coming days, the wonders of his grace and mercy."

To close, Leo cited St. Paul VI's reflection at the end of the 1975 Jubilee, saying its core message can be summed up in a single word: "love." He then repeated Paul VI's emphatic profession of faith, including: "God is love! ... God is mercy! God is forgiveness! ... God, yes, God is life!"
