Easter Sunday

April 21st 2019

This Day was made by the Lord;

we rejoice and are glad.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Easter Blessings 2019

Easter Thanks

Our thanks as a parish to all those who have contributed their time and expertise to celebrate the wonderful Holy Week and Easter Liturgies in a beautiful church. Our thanks, too, to those who make the church such a welcoming place in which to celebrate, and to those who contribute to the liturgy throughout the year. May God's Easter blessing be upon us, our families and all those we love as we celebrate Christ's resurrection from the

Return to School

With Easter being so late this year most of our local schools had the Easter holidays before Easter with the result that our children and young people return to school on Easter Tuesday. We hope and pray that they, the staff and all connected with the schools will go back refreshed and enthusiastic. We think in a special way of those who will be taking important examinations this coming term.

Leeds Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes

LOURDES 2019: The Hospitality Team are in desperate need for more volunteers (Doctors, Nurses, Helpers) for the Diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes – 5th – 11th July 2019. If you are able to help please call Kim O'Connor (Medical) 07947 534989; Angela Harvey (Helpers) 07939 262748. Many thanks.

Charity Shop

Please note that the Charity Shop will be closed this week. It will re-open on Tuesday April 30th. Our thanks as a parish to all who staff the shop and to all

“This week, whatever you may be facing, remember that in three short days, the disciples and family of Christ went from hopelessness to hopeful - from devastation to celebration, from defeat to victory! Because of the cross and the tomb, you have a hope in Christ!” (Sheri Easter)

Easter

"On this Easter morning, let us look again at the lives we have been so generously given and let us let fall away the useless baggage that we carry -- old pains, old habits, old ways of seeing and feeling -- and let us have the courage to begin again. Life is very short, and we are no sooner here than it is time to depart again, and we should use to the full the time that we still have. We don't realize all the good we can do. A kind, encouraging word or helping hand can bring many a person through dark valleys in their lives. We weren't put here to make money or to acquire status or reputation. We were sent here to search for the light of Easter in our hearts, and when we find it we are meant to give it away generously. The dawn that is rising this Easter morning is a gift to our hearts and we are meant to celebrate it and to carry away from this holy, ancient place the gifts of healing and light and the courage of a new beginning."
John O'Donohue (Dawn Mass Reflections at Corcomroe Abbey 2016)

LEEDS INTERNATIONAL ORGAN FESTIVAL

Leeds Cathedral is to hold the second Leeds International Organ Festival this summer. Between 13th May and 10th July, organists young and old will have the opportunity to hear, meet and perform alongside renowned international concert organists who will join the local resident team. A range of music from Bach to theatre organ repertoire will be played on the Cathedral's magnificent Klais organ, with other events in Huddersfield and Ossett, showcasing some of the finest instruments in West Yorkshire. There is much to delight players, singers and music enthusiasts alike over the Festival's two months: masterclasses with some of the world's most distinguished professors of organ, in addition to lunchtime recitals and evening concerts. For the first time, young players from the Diocese of Leeds Organists' Training Programme will perform in Leeds Cathedral. Singers will be welcome, too, at the Cathedral's 'Come and Sing Haydn' day in June. Alongside these performances, the Festival will include an evening with the world-famous composer Sir James MacMillan, interviewed by Richard Mantle, General Director of Opera North.
