

From Sunday's Gospel

Jesus said to his disciples, 'I still have many things to say to you, but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking of himself, but will say only what he has heard; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I have said, All the Spirit tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

Pope Francis writes:

"Dear young friends, God cannot be grasped by the mind. If he could be grasped he would not be God." Today's words are Holy Trinity. This Sunday's Gospel reminds us that in the One God there are three persons. The Father creates us, the Son saves us and the Spirit gives us life. Each of them aims to give us perfect happiness, working in unity. We remember the Trinity every time we bless ourselves making the sign of the cross "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

The Most Holy Trinity June 16th

Every year the Church invites us to reflect on God as the Holy Trinity on the Sunday after Pentecost, and we certainly need the Holy Spirit to help us in our reflections, because God is beyond our understanding, if God were not, then he would not be God. This Solemnity reminds us that at the very heart of God's own life is a communion of persons in perfect harmony. However hard we search the Gospels we will never find the word Trinity, but what we do have is Jesus, as Son, revealing God as Father, and promising to send the Spirit who will lead us to the fullness of truth.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

Solemnity of the Sacred Heart

The Parish's Patronal Feast of the Sacred Heart takes place on Friday 28th June. To mark this very special day in our liturgical year Mass will be celebrated at 7.30pm followed by a Shared Table in the Parish Centre. All Very Welcome

As announced last week the amount taken on the day of the Summer Fair was a staggering £1,722.97p! Since then a further £10.00 has been handed in and last week's takings in the shop came to £368.14p, largely due to the fact that items not sold on the Sunday were available for people to buy on Tuesday and Wednesday. So, adding everything together the final total would be nearly £2,000.00. Thank you to everyone.

A Christian receives divine wisdom in three ways; by the commandments, teachings and faith. The Commandments free the mind from passions. Teaching lead it to true knowledge of nature. Faith leads it to the contemplation of the Trinity. (Maximus the Confessor)

Bishop John Wilson

The Holy See announced on Monday June 10th the appointment of Archbishop-Elect John Wilson as the 11th Archbishop of Southwark. Arch-Bishop Elect Wilson succeeds the Most Reverend Peter Smith, who has been Archbishop of Southwark since 2010. Archbishop-Elect Wilson, Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster since 2015 and previously a priest in the Diocese of Leeds, will be the 11th Archbishop of Southwark and his Episcopal Installation will be celebrated in St George's Cathedral, Southwark, on 25th July. Speaking of his appointment, Archbishop-Elect Wilson said: "Someone once said if you want to make God laugh tell him your plans. In whatever way I may have imagined God's plan for my life to unfold, the news of my appointment by Pope Francis as the new Archbishop of Southwark came as a complete surprise. I am grateful to his Excellency Archbishop Edward J Adams, the Apostolic Nuncio, for his encouragement, and for reminding me of C.S.Lewis invitation to be 'surprised by joy.' It is the joy of the Gospel, the Good News of God's love for the world in his Son Jesus Christ, that sustains and animates the Church's mission in which I am to share in a new way...Please pray for me as I prepare to begin this new ministry of service as a witness to Jesus Christ."

Saddleworth Sing for Pleasure Choir's Summer Concert is on Saturday 22nd June 7.30pm at Holy Trinity Church, Dobcross with guests Oldham Music Centre Youth Wind Ensemble. Admission £5 (children free).

Tickets available on the door.
All proceeds to Oldham Mountain Rescue Team.
